

Abstract

The study came under the field of management and its impact on evaluation the performance of workers applying to Nile Valley University.

In the first chapter the study talked about the nature and concepts of knowledge management , the characteristics and foundations of establishing knowledge management and models of knowledge management.

In The second chapter , the study talked about the concept and importance of performance evaluation methods of performance evaluation.

In the third chapter , the study talked about an introduction to Nile Valley University , data , analysis and hypothesis testing.

The study came out with some conclusions and recommendations.